

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since the Indiana law went into effect, I have more quality time at home in the evenings. There are no more annoying interruptions while eating dinner, spending time with my family, watching TV, etc. I used to receive these calls on a regular basis and I certainly DO NOT want to go back to that. It is an invasion of my privacy.